PlasmaThor – A New Earth 5D User manual Solteris!

The word Solteris is the universal form of greeting and translates as:
"Light on Planet Earth Geea".

In free translation, it represents the reconnection of Planet Earth to the universal information system, which represents the connection with the Sun, the Central star whose name is: „RA”

My name is Florin Vasile and I am the founder of the PlasmaThor Brand. On this occasion, thank you very much for purchasing this pyramids. The pyramid is the result of my work on the 10-year period in which I searched for solutions to protect the systems lives especially of people. The path taken in making these devices it was not easy, but it was challenging and motivating due to its importance at the individual and general level. The universe is full of precious information on which we can access when we are ready for this.

This device is unique and the information is taken from the Universe and not from the internet network. In the following I will describe you in detail presentation of the pyramid as well working procedures with this pyramid.

 PlasmaTHOR®
www.plasmathor.ro

To begin with, it is important to know that the pyramid is designed to be connected to the 220V socket and switched on all the time.

It is important to pay attention to the green LED in the Plasmathor logo to be lit all the time. The green LED is the indicator light of the generator of Cosmic signal, the led is not connected to electrical voltage and with all this, it lights up due to the energy flow it emits the Cosmic signal generator. In the situation where the light is no longer on lights up, please report this to us so that we can we fix the situation.

Chromotherapy is used only when we are in close proximity pyramid or when we use the radionic principle. We recommend that the location of the pyramid, preferably, should be as close as possible to the center the house or space. Its coverage area is 500-600 square meters.

The hexagonal support that you found in the package must be positioned at the top of the pyramid.

Plasmathor is a Romanian brand that was founded in 2013 with the aim of creating energy devices of the last generation. These devices energetically balance and protect any living system. Our technology contributes to support, change and transformation the leap in Consciousness as well as the increase in vibration at the Planetary level, by reconnecting with the Universe and the Source of Creation.

Plasmathor pyramids are devices that help with concentration of force fields through which emission and reception can be achieved information, to support us in the process of Planetary Ascension in The New Golden Age on Earth.

The PlasmaThor Pyramid, A New Earth 5 D is a unique device, revolutionary and indispensable for the times we live in, because we offers a multitude of beneficial uses in any field of work.

The pyramid is a bioenergetic device designed in the smallest detail in order to protect and support life in all its forms.

In scientific terms this device is called
"Cosmic energy collector"
which has multiple quantum characteristics.

The pyramid is the result of studies carried out many years ago, in which time, love and gratitude towards the Creative Source were invested. I received the information through intuition when I remembered that it was necessary to process and use the living information from the huge energy field and information of the Universe.

This device has the ability to provide multiple beneficial uses:

- PlasmaThor pyramids support Ascension and DNA activation;
- ensures protection against artificial electromagnetic fields;
- download and propagate biological fields from the Universe;
- the biological structure of beech wood
- creates protection space against geopathogenic areas;
- harmonizing the chakras through chromotherapy;
- informationally and bio-electromagnetically structures any food;
- purifies crystals and semi-precious stones;
- amplifies the effect of alternative therapies;
- supports immunity;
- radionic therapy;
- potentiates the thought form;
- removes negative energies;
- action and synergistic effect;
- supports spiritual evolution;
- supports the Great Ascension.

The Pyramids of PlasmaThor support the Ascension and Activation of DNA in 12 strands

The Ascension process is one of great transformation, which must be treated with care, patience and grace. The transition from a DNA being prepared with two double-helix strands to a 12-stranded structure, leading to improved skills and perceptions. Activating latent abilities through threads of additional DNA propels people towards a new state of being and a heightened awareness. Pyramids of PlasmaThor - A New Earth 5D favors the rewiring of the brain and nervous system to adapt to higher levels of awareness, opening the way for a holistic transformation at the cellular level.

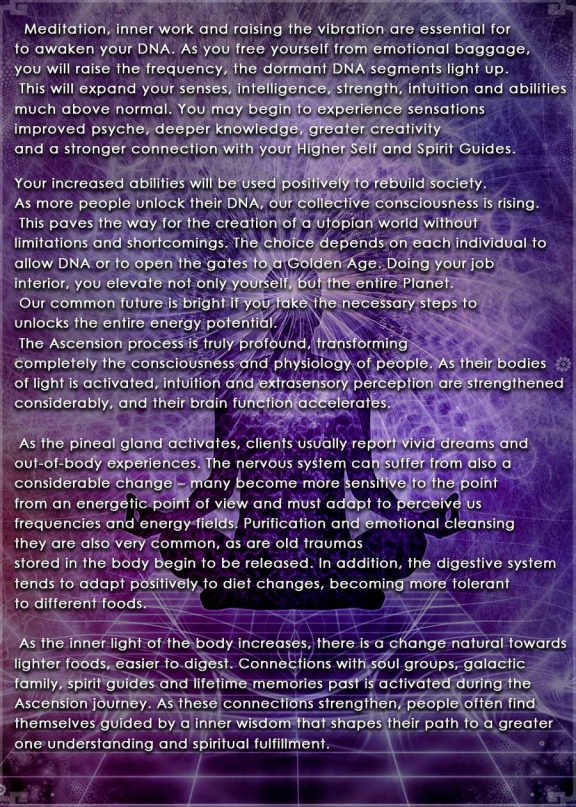

It contributes to the unity of physical and spiritual evolution, to adaptation to higher energy frequencies. The journey of ascent from 3D reality to 5D reality is truly transformative and exciting. This great change underway on Earth has captured widespread attention throughout the galaxy.

Planetary Ascension is a natural phenomenon, just like life everywhere it evolves through densities. For humanity, the transition to 5D existence will bring profound physical, mental and spiritual changes. Our brains will work faster, our bodies will catch up with new capabilities and we will reconnect with our galactic neighbors. Completely new feelings and experiences will appear.

Above all, the Ascension process allows for collective movement towards a Golden Age prophesied for a long time. But this brighter future depends on the opening of the heart and mind of each one of us and the lifting of our individual consciousness. Our DNA holds the blueprint for this MAGNIFICENT potential. A golden age is within reach if we take the steps necessary to awaken the full potential of our DNA.

Although Ascension is a natural phenomenon, realizing its benefits requires INTENT and ACTION. The human sketch contains much more capabilities than those we currently experience.

Limiting beliefs and traumas have led us to suppress a sea of our DNA. By releasing blockages, we can allow our dormant DNA and inaugurate a new Golden Age.

Meditation, inner work and raising the vibration are essential for to awaken your DNA. As you free yourself from emotional baggage, you will raise the frequency, the dormant DNA segments light up. This will expand your senses, intelligence, strength, intuition and abilities much above normal. You may begin to experience sensations improved psyche, deeper knowledge, greater creativity and a stronger connection with your Higher Self and Spirit Guides.

Your increased abilities will be used positively to rebuild society. As more people unlock their DNA, our collective consciousness is rising. This paves the way for the creation of a utopian world without limitations and shortcomings. The choice depends on each individual to allow DNA or to open the gates to a Golden Age. Doing your job interior, you elevate not only yourself, but the entire Planet. Our common future is bright if you take the necessary steps to unlocks the entire energy potential.

The Ascension process is truly profound, transforming completely the consciousness and physiology of people. As their bodies of light is activated, intuition and extrasensory perception are strengthened considerably, and their brain function accelerates.

As the pineal gland activates, clients usually report vivid dreams and out-of-body experiences. The nervous system can suffer from also a considerable change – many become more sensitive to the point from an energetic point of view and must adapt to perceive us frequencies and energy fields. Purification and emotional cleansing they are also very common, as are old traumas stored in the body begin to be released. In addition, the digestive system tends to adapt positively to diet changes, becoming more tolerant to different foods.

As the inner light of the body increases, there is a change natural towards lighter foods, easier to digest. Connections with soul groups, galactic family, spirit guides and lifetime memories past is activated during the Ascension journey. As these connections strengthen, people often find themselves guided by a inner wisdom that shapes their path to a greater one understanding and spiritual fulfillment.

Therefore, we choose wisely to amplify our bioenergy to be able to great internal reserves, let's cultivate states full of resources, yes we become clearer and become generators of Divine Love.

Energy blockages can consist of systems of limiting beliefs, emotional patterns, inherited energies, thought-forms, disharmonious energy patterns, breaks in the auric field or in the chakras, fragmentation of the soul, etc. The BIG PROBLEM is that people are completely disconnected from their Higher Self with an activation level of DNA of maximum 3.5 helices. The vast majority of people have blockages energy in their chakras and do not know that these unseen blockages can be deactivated at the quantum level and that they can INSTANTLY become clearer, jovial, loving, respectful and that they can manifest with greater coherence in their lives.

Another time of unseen barriers represented the artificial seals, constructions energetics inherited from the energy network of the planet that twist and they reject the primary currents of vital force from entering the energy system circulatory. To unlock these new barriers we built the pyramids PlasmaThor. When we are in the vicinity of the PlasmaThor pyramids, in their biological field, our body absorbs high frequency energy and following this process, your personal frequency increases for activation DNA in 12 strands. In accelerated mode, your consciousness is expanded and the current reality is changing. It is important that this information validate in YOUR heart. When your heart warms, your soul warms confirm the authenticity of the information read.

Start your Ascension journey today!
SUPPORTS THE PROCESS OF PLANETARY ASCENSION

PlasmaThor supports the Great Ascension by spreading these pyramids in all areas of the globe forming a synergistic energy network with Global Divine Source. Our entire solar system is preparing on each of you for the Great Ascension of you and the entire planet.

It's time for it!

But it's time to do a deep introspection inside yourself... everyone, at the Planetary level. An introspection, a dive into the depths of the interior and to find that reverberation in you that connects you not only to this planet Earth, Gaia, but to all the planets of the solar system, to the Sun, to all the Central Suns of the galaxies and to the central Sun of the Universe.

The connection with the very Source of this Universe

The PlasmaThor pyramid network acts as a very Planetary grid powerful and efficient by discharging and maintaining high vibrations from Universe that supports the evolution and purity of the mental body of humanity for our Planetary Ascension.

The planet and humanity must be seen as two different bodies. Just like the individual is part of humanity, humanity is part of the planet.

When planetary activations come, they automatically influence everything that resides under it: humanity, the individual, the mineral, vegetable and animal kingdom.

When there are activations at the level of humanity, all individuals are influenced of these activations. Of course, the process also takes place in reverse: what happens an individual influences humanity and the planet, but in a large percentage smaller than the process that came from above and then descended on all other levels. Now, related to Planetary Ascension: first Ascend the Planet. In the Ascension process of the Planet, each one ascends one by one body of the planet, i.e. all the subtle bodies of the Planet, known and unknown, until the last body, which is the physical, material one. Ascension of the Planet was made last year. We are fixed in size 5 a, with everything the Planetary physical body.

The one that did not ascend, is humanity. Humanity is too composed of subtle bodies. I mean, what subtle bodies do we have as individuals, but gathered together in one place, in a common heap. Humanity is now in the interdimensional area, that is, the 4th dimension. It's the area more vulnerable, in which the darkness can attack fully, and it does. One of the most vulnerable bodies, on which they work. It has been the mental body of humanity for many thousands of years. There we have many headaches, many to clean, to heal, from redone, to be updated, etc.

Within humanity, an individual can achieve 5D Ascension and will contribute to making the leap of humanity, in a small percentage. It happens already this, at the planetary level there are people who have Ascended already at the same time, because the Planet has already Ascended, it influences constantly humanity in the process of Ascension, in a percentage great. As we move forward with Ascension, it is implemented more and more the new dimension in the material plane. A lot of people expect that once you reach 5D, with everything, i.e. with the physical body of the Planet, of humanity and our personal, things become rosy overnight. but a dimension has several steps: the bottom steps up to the top steps higher. When you barely step into a higher dimension, you have to a period of stabilization follows. The old one must collapse totally, like let the New be born. The collapse cannot happen all at once, because it doesn't we can withstand such an intensive process of transformation and cleaning. It happens in stages. It is a process that requires time, a lot of healing and a lot of transformation. All this is already happening.

The important thing is that the planet has ascended. It is the most important. It is a Spirit that has a very important role in the rest of Creation. Now we have the ascension process of humanity and ours to go personally, of course. Let's pray to the Divinity for help and to have luck of success, because humanity is hard pressed in these moments, in which everything is in sight, but a large majority still does not see the way which is manipulated and the dangers to which it is subjected.

Note:

Become aware of the fact that we must contribute to the change, transformation and reconnection to our higher Self and to the Divine Source, it's time for that, try to put more price, attention and interest in spiritual knowledge and practice because apart from these two things, everything is transient and for the moment, nothing is eternal and time does not proves and always reminds us of this.

Our true wealth and achievement is knowledge and actions in the goal of the Common Good. Our Creator wants us rich, healthy, happy and loving.

For our success, it is important that we never put their money material values first because we prioritize our connection primordial with material things which are in turn connected with the vibration of matter as a result of low vibration. At the moment I have put the material situation first, inevitably the connection with the Divine Source in the second or third place and by this we block ourselves along the flow of Abundance of any nature.

Protection Against Artificial Electromagnetic Radiation

As you well know, artificial electromagnetic pollution, generated by wired and wireless electronic devices, has reached alarming levels. These harmful fields destabilize the biological electromagnetic field of of man and not only of man.

At the moment when all living beings are literally bombarded by others artificial electromagnetic fields, in the body, a major inflammatory process occurs, which can lead to various health problems, and here we can tell you in detail some examples: insomnia, allergies, chronic fatigue, infertility, oxidative stress, mental fog and many other quite serious health problems.

The functioning of the body in the presence of artificial electromagnetic fields, for example: connected electrical devices produce an artificial field, like all wired and wireless electronic devices. Telecommunications, such as radio waves, TV antennas, mobile phones, devices that have a connection WIFI, TV stations, radio stations, base towers for mobile phones, the towers control from airports, etc. all of the above also produce artificial electromagnetic fields.

The biological effects recorded in the vicinity of these novice fields vary from changes in synthesis rates and intracellular concentrations of different biomolecules until the damage of DNA and proteins which they can cause cell death, decreased fertility or even cancer.

We live in an ocean of artificial electromagnetic radiation that amplifies itself harmfulness with the development of the technological process.

To protect yourself from the harmfulness of these electromagnetic fields, we recommend the PlasmaThor Pyramid.

NOTE:

The pyramid acts to combat harmful radiation on large surfaces of 500-600 square meters regardless of the partitioning of the space, walls, etc. The emission of the pyramid is spherical, which is why it can be located anywhere in a space to energetically cover the lower and upper floor; The pyramid is designed to work all the time and for this purpose it is necessary to leave it connected to the power source with the power button pressed, it is not necessary for the LEDs to remain lit except when we want to use chromotherapy.

The pyramid comes equipped with a Cosmic signal generator mounted at the base of the pyramid. The generator emits a specific harmonic in space to connect with the Cosmic flow (Bio-electromagnetism) The transmitted signal, in loose terms, can be described as a request to the forces of the Universe. From the moment the signal is transmitted, following the generated resonance, a specific bio-energetic flow is discharged to all living systems. This flow, once discharged, propagates on a surface of 500-600 square meters. When the pyramid is connected to a the 220v source and the power button is on, the Cosmic se generator activates instantly and in just 2 seconds the bio-energetic flow drops and spreads over large areas. This device is designed in the smaller detail to have the ability to offer protection and vitality of any living system in any space or field of work.

The biological fields are discharged all the time to protect you as well vitalize; At the cellular level, you are supported by the increase in vibration because this is necessary for the present and future times; So Planet ours, as well as the other planets in our Solar system, amplify themselves the vibration for a New stage of the Divine Plan. Every being must increase the vibration of his body to be able to Ascend.

This is happening now at this moment for a period of several years.

Note:

- The pyramid is built entirely of beech wood;
- The angle of the pyramid respects the Golden number;
- Each side of the pyramid contains a Sacred symbol;
- The symbols are engraved using laser technology and have their own resonance;
- The sun or RA represents life, warmth and growth;
- The constellation Alpha Centauri;
- Represents Evolution, Science, Technology, Spirituality, Unconditional Love;
- The triskelion represents the trinity or the three legs;
- The symbol "AUM" represents the symbol of Man.

Protection Against Geopathogenic Zones

Apart from these benefits, the PlasmaThor pyramid provides a space of protection against geopathogenic areas.

Geopathogenic areas (areas with negative telluric radiation) cause disturbances of the vital energy field for all living systems, mainly blockages energy, producing pathogenic problems over time. Only 5% of people who are in a geopathogenic zone remain healthy on their own the great potential of the protective forces or of the hereditary ones they have at disposition; thanks to this fact they can resist the influence for a long time changer of the earth's radiation.

According to the theory of functional biosymmetry, among the population there is types of people with polarization ("left" and "right") who reacts completely differently to the earth's radiation. Cancer points local in geopathogenic areas, in most of them, correspond to intersections induced, moreover, the radiated waves have their characteristic frequencies and they usually have a polarization to the left.

In these negative areas, the grass does not grow, the tree trunks are twisted on the left, cancerous tumors are also present on them

Geopathogenic zones create strong left-polarized fields, very harmful for vegetation, animals and especially for humans.

They are absolutely subject to the same danger with very serious health consequences all people. Cancerous tumors, osteoporosis, cardiovascular diseases, mental, reproductive, endocrine system are just some of the most common.

Work procedures

- Connect the pyramid to a 220V power source;
- Press the power button on the right side of the pyramid;
- Attach the hexagonal table;
- Install the DuoCo Strip application from the Play Store or scan the QR code located under the base of the pyramid, where the installation of RGB LEDs is located;
- To connect with the pyramid, with the left palm positioned on top the pyramid in its proximity without touching the table, affirm in your mind the following: "I connect with the pyramid and with the Divine Source!" After this affirmation, it is possible to feel an energetic flow entering through left hand and walks towards the right hand and legs.

This connection can also be made remotely.

The pyramid acts in the purification and revitalization of the space in which it is placed.

I recommend you to work with her by intention and not to expect anything specific without asking for this through meditation or prayer; The universe always acts when it is requested; it does not invade us the space never without us giving our consent by requesting this;

The pyramid is designed and conceived in accordance with the Divine Laws, it us creates a protective space against negative energies and radiation harmful but when we want something specific for us it is necessary to ask for that thing; We must become aware of the fact that the pyramid it is a cosmic relay that connects directly with the Source of Creation.

The pyramid removes all these geopathogenic energies from your space ensuring a safe space, protected from the import of these polarized fields on the left. These polarized fields on the left side absorb the energy vital of living systems. The PlasmaThor-Pyramid has the ability to block this "theft" of energy. The location of the pyramid can be in the center of the house.

We do not recommend placing it on the nightstand because the flow of energy it is too high to rest.

Protection Against Negative Energies

In feng shui, the best spaces are those with positive energy, peaceful and free to flow.

When the energy gets blocked, we get blocked too.

If lately you have felt uninspired, lethargic, chaotic or, in other words, "on the outside", we recommend this one PlasmaThor bioenergetic device.

Cleaning your residential or commercial space could be just right what you need to give a new boost to your everyday life.

Cleaning the space can remove any stagnant energy or unwanted from the space that surrounds you.

Throughout history, different cultures have practiced space cleansing to get rid of negativism and many of these.

Normally, if you choose to clean the space with fumigation or other method, it is important to know that this it is necessary to do it every day and not occasionally because the space

it is not kept energetically clean for more than 24

of hours because there are many variables that intervene in everyday life, moment by moment.

The PlasmaThor pyramid was designed to provide us with a space generous protection all the time because the flow of Light is discharged from the Universe is constantly propagated to ensure us protection and vitality.

Note:

- The PlasmaThor pyramid works to restore energy from your space.
- Clear the room of any low vibration entity in one very short time.
- Creates a space of protection against negative energies.
- Any cleaning technique or procedure adopted amplifies the power of the pyramid.
- Only through intention and visualization do we amplify this process of cleaning the space:

In thought or out loud we say the following affirmations:

- With the Light of our Heavenly Father Creator clean any energy negative or negative program from this space;
- Heavenly Father's light gives me protection, clarity and healing Divine.

It is important to know that the Divine energy never violate our Free Will.

The Divine Energy is propagated by the pyramid on large surfaces 500-600 square meters, in the space where it is placed, the Divine Light is installed. When we want other codes of Divine Light specific to a certain one purpose, it is necessary to ASK for that thing because the Universe does not send what we need without us asking for it.

The universe sends love and Divine protection unconditionally, but when we need healing, abundance, etc., it is necessary that you to request this.

Meditations and prayers are practiced regularly because after each meditation or prayer we get what we ask for.

I will detail an example as clearly as possible to make sure that you understand what I mean:

Let's take as an example a glass in which we added mud proportion of 80% of the capacity of the glass, this mud also has a little water in his component.

To clean the glass, we pour water over the mud to clean it again the water inside the glass should remain clear, we pour a little today, tomorrow a little, the day after tomorrow a little and so on until the water cleans the mud.

Obviously, if we pour a little water on the first day and expect that the glass to have clear water without mud this is not possible, unless we do this repeatedly.

In the given comparison, imagine that you are the glass and the mud is the low vibrational energy or energy blockages and of course water represents the Divine Light.

Always when we ask the Divine for what we need, we must mention at the end of the request:

"In the most evolved way possible and in tune with my Higher Self."

.Our self knows better if the request is beneficial for us or not our. There is no technique that is better than another, basically two aspects are important to the applied technique:

THE MESSAGE OF THE REQUEST SHOULD BE AS CLEAR AS POSSIBLE AND WELL UNDERSTANDED BY YOU.

(if it can be done with visualization, it is all the better and more effective)
BECAUSE ALL WORDS LAUNCHED INTO THE UNIVERSE TURN INTO IMAGES

Universal communication is based on images and not words. If we do not clearly establish what we want to obtain through the request released obviously that the image transmitted in Universe is not decipherable by to the forces of the Universe.

Structures informational and Bio-Electromagnetic
Any Food and Non-Food

Few people know that food is loaded with different fields harmful artificial electromagnetics. For example, water or any liquid load unconditionally regardless of its quality or quantity with different harmful electromagnetic fields and when we consume them we take over those harmful fields in our structures in our body.

In the case of vegetables, fruits and meat, we face the same situation, all of them these foods are loaded with harmful electromagnetic fields artificial. The pyramid has the ability to remove electromagnetic toxicity from food with the help of the bioelectromagnetic fields emitted by it.

After this field cleaning procedure, you will notice that the food they have a different taste, which is actually the real taste of food.

When the food is in the protective space provided by the pyramid, 500-600 square meters, all these foods are energetically purified and electromagnetic.

If we want to eat certain foods earlier, we can opt to purify them quickly by placing them on the hexagonal support positioned at the top of the pyramid.

Exposure time of liquids on the hexagonal support is minimal 30 minutes, as we leave them longer, due to the prolonged exposure liquids acquire therapeutic properties due to the flow of Cosmic energy.

It transforms the beneficial structured water for sustaining vitality any living system: plants, animals, humans. Bio-energetic charged water we can use both for our own consumption, in any quantity, however by anyone, regardless of age or health problems, can still use it watering the plants to grow and sustain their vitality.

To increase the growth of plants or vegetables, we recommend watering them with bio-energetic charged water.

In the case of medicines or cigarettes once placed on the support hexagonal the harmful information is removed.

The pyramid does NOT have the ability to change or modify the chemical composition instead, it has the ability to remove programs that we humans we implement through our way of thinking.

When we notice a pack of cigarettes, very often consciously or not unconsciously, we consider them harmful and harmful to our body, in a way obviously they are harmful, but we potentiate their harmfulness through the thought form.

Note:

It is necessary for the structuring of negative information and harmful fields to place the respective products on the hexagonal support located at the top the pyramid. Any food or non-food can be placed here.

For example, water can be placed in glass or plastic containers small or large quantities of no more than 5 liters. Exposure time of liquids in generally it is at least 30 minutes, if we keep it longer it is even more good because liquids have a fantastic energy storage potential and information. Water can be consumed by anyone at any time in anything amount. With this structured water we can water the plants and at the same time we can also give it to animals

PURIFICATION OF CRYSTALS AND OF SEMI-PRECIOUS STONES

Have you ever wondered how to clean or purify crystals and semi-precious stones ?

Due to the fact that every crystal goes a long way before arriving to the possessor, different energies can be captured by these crystals before a be used. Therefore, anyone who wants to use a crystal must to consider cleaning or purifying it. That crystal it will return to its natural state from the perspective of the energy it holds. The structure of the crystals is very strong and cannot be modified. Each crystal has certain models and geometric patterns specific.

It is for the purification of crystals and precious stones necessary to place them on the hexagonal support of the pyramid.

In the first stage, they are cleaned of negative energies as well as different programs implemented in their structure.

After the cleaning/purification stage, we recommend scheduling them on the stand of the pyramid with algorithms specific to alternative medicine in view general welfare.

Crystals and semi-precious stones have been used since ancient times, dating back to the period of Ancient Egypt or the Roman Empire.

They were also used by the Chinese, Indians or Japanese in it was many centuries ago. Crystals were used to support healing and enlightenment.

Currently, crystals are used in different practices by people specialized in alternative therapies or by Spiritual Masters.

They use crystals and semi-precious stones through the prism metaphysical properties and through the prism of the benefits that energy crystals can bring about the general state of health.

It is believed that most crystals and semi-precious stones have a significant impact on energy levels due to natural vibrations which they emit, thus helping physical well-being, emotional and spiritual. Our ancestors considered that all crystals and semi-precious stones bring energetic changes through interaction with the human electromagnetic field. It was believed that the energy of the crystals forms a bridge between conscious thoughts and the physical body at the same time, there is a belief according to which these crystals and stones semi-precious are sources that help release the flow of energy of the body.

When a very large amount of unwanted energy is stored in crystals, they are disturbed from the point of view of vibration. Even though it is said that most crystals have the ability to return to the natural state, it must be pointed out that this process is a long lasting one. It is precisely for this reason that I made this the method for purifying and cleaning crystals.

Certain people specialized in alternative medicine recommend even purifying and cleaning the crystals before and after each practice in which they are used. This starts from the premise that these crystals can absorb and release energy. For this reason it is very important release of the negative energy stored in each of these crystals. Each of the crystals will work more efficiently then when it is cleaned regularly.

Jewelry and clothes can be energetically cleaned with the same efficiency

Note:

We recommend the purification of crystals and semi-precious stones for resetting, cleaning and charging with high vibration energy flow regardless of their utility, jewelry, decoration, therapeutic crystals.

In the situation where we use the crystals for different therapies or if we want to schedule them with a certain purpose, we recommend that when they are placed on the hexagonal stand positioned at the top of the pyramid we request his or their programming with clear affirmation associated with visualization.

In any situation, when we ask the Divine for help, we only use statements and in no CASE names of diseases.

Amplifies the Effect of Alternative Therapies

In the case and situation of the therapists, in many of the therapies, they support with energy their healing process of the patient without realizing this aspect. In addition to this, therapists do not only yield from their vital energy but there are also situations in which they take over different energies that destabilize their structure energy.

The PlasmaThor pyramid has the ability to provide the specific energy for therapy applied as well as the alchemization of disorganized or vibration energies low in the patient's structure.

The pyramid offers a real support of specific and compatible bioenergy any living system.

The bioenergetic flow unconditionally supports any alternative therapy.

It can be used to potentiate the effectiveness of any therapeutic technique:

Acupressure, Acupuncture, Biofeedback, Balneotherapy, Bioenergy, Cranio sacral, Crystal therapy, Hesychasm, Ayurvedic Medicine, Massage, Meditation and Visualization, Melotherapy and sound therapy, Mindcontrol, Naturopathy, Osteopathy, Acupressure, Psychoanalysis, Psychotherapy and Counseling, Pranayama, Metamorphic technique, Radiant technique, Cognitive therapy, Cranial Therapy, Magnet Therapy, Theta Healing, Dowsing, Reflexology, Regression, Reiki, Radionics, Dowsing, Reflexology, Relaxation and Breathing, Yoga and many other therapies.

Note:

The pyramid has the ability to energetically balance any living system that is found in her proximity I give from a distance.

For any work procedure, you must take into account the fact that it is forbidden to send Divine healing energy to a person if not you have her consent.

In the case of children, it is allowed if we have the consent of one of the parents and in the situation of the animals does not require this agreement.

Agreement is only required when we send healing and not cleansing, love and energy protection, in these situations you can act without consent the person.

Supports Immunity

In addition to the effect of combating harmful fields, the pyramid offers a vital support in supporting the natural functioning process in the structures any living system.

After the tests performed in the dark field, I noticed that then when we are in the vicinity of the pyramid, the voltage increases at the cellular level and the amperage in the body, which determines the improvement of immunity.

When the voltage and amperage decrease progressively, at the cellular level, install the disease.

Note:

When we are in the proximity of the pyramid, in its biological field, our cells absorb the biological electromagnetic fields of the pyramid and following this process, the energy values at the cellular level change the working capacity coming into balance due to the voltage and the amperage grown up.

The increased voltage and amperage at the cellular level represents the car capacity body's defense against various disturbing factors.

Premature aging, disease and many other examples of this kind installs in the body when the cellular energy called voltage and amperage is low.

The body's immunity is maintained with the help of cellular energy.

Harmonization of Chakras through Chromotherapy

At the energetic level, the Plasmathor Pyramid has the ability to balance us and harmonizes the chakras through Chromatic Frequencies

Planet Earth - Gea is subject to 7 different chromatic frequencies or vibration, which is the basis of our activity, these being associated in Astrology with planetary hours. Their name is given by the similarity between these vibration values and the celestial bodies of the Phydalia System.

So that:

The red color is associated with the Planet Mars (Vamfim) which represents dynamic application according to the elements understood in the stage of Jupiter. The color orange is associated with the Sun (RA) in which the elements particular ones can come into contact with the universal elements found on the same frequency.

The yellow color is associated with the planet Venus (Aldomary), the stage in which involve the elements made in collaboration with others, being able to keep in reality only the elements with universal validity, which do not disturb other systems in their evolution.

The color green, the subtle color of the Moon (SI), is at the beginning of any idea, its characteristic being creativity and also mobility, aspects which materializes at the mental level in oscillations, comparisons, through accumulation of data to make the most correct decision.

The blue color is associated with the planet Jupiter from the point of view chromatically, depending on its fairness you can get help in what you do; The indigo color is similar to that of the planet Saturn (Lepydon) moment when a decision is made by assuming responsibility, later following the tests, the attempts in its realization.

The purple color is associated with the Planet Mercury (Ascarenlir) which can it brings confirmations at the level of communication and we can actually collaborate.

Chromotherapy is also called color therapy and is a method treatment alternative based on the effects of colors on health.

What is chromotherapy and how does it work?

The meaning of colors

Chromotherapy (also known as color therapy) is a method of treatment that uses the visible spectrum of colors to favor healing. Colors generate electrical impulses and magnetic currents or energy fields that are primary activators of biochemical processes and hormones in the human body.

Each color has a unique effect on the body. Warm colors are in generally used for diseases characterized by weakness, and cold colors are frequently used for diseases characterized by excesses. It was considered that chakras are areas of the body associated with certain colors.

When a person faces a problem in a certain area of the body, different colors work to heal the associated chakra.

Colors and chakras

There are seven chakras associated with the body (energy centers):

- The first chakra is the one to which the red color corresponds and is located at the base of the spine;
- The second chakra – the color orange corresponds to it, being located in the region of the pelvis and groin;
- The third chakra – is associated with the color yellow and is located in the region the solar plexus, or between the 12th thoracic vertebra and the 1st lumbar vertebra;
- The fourth chakra – corresponds to the color green and is located in the area the chest;
- The fifth chakra – the color blue corresponds to it and is located in neck region;
- The sixth chakra – corresponds to the indigo color and is located in the center foreheads;
- The seventh chakra – corresponds to the purple color and is located above head, being the chakra of consciousness.

How do colors influence the body?

The scientific aspect of color therapy explains the fact that this therapy works by regulating the pineal gland. Secretory pineal gland melatonin and serotonin. Melatonin is associated with sleep, while serotonin is associated with wakefulness. When an individual produces too much melatonin, may suffer from depression. Serotonin is a neurotransmitter that acts on mental disorders, such as schizophrenia and hallucinogenic states.

Colors influence the mood and emotions, they have an impact on feelings and are a way of self-expression.

They influence the flow and amount of energy in our body.

It is believed that each color has special benefits on the body, through the prism of its energy:

RED

- activates the circulatory and nervous system;
- favors cell growth;
- favors the production of adrenaline;
- supports the formation of hemoglobin;
- stimulates the sensory nerves, such as for hearing, sight, taste, smell;
- activates metabolism.

ORANGE

- useful against asthma and bronchitis;
- freeing the mind;
- being a combination between red and yellow, combines physical energy with mental wisdom;
- stimulates creativity and emotions;
- helps to improve social behavior;
- reduces inflammation.

YELLOW

- favors digestion;
- relieves nervous disorders;
- has an effect on the intellect;
- useful for problems with the stomach, liver or intestines;
- can protect the skin;
- stimulates the intellect and curiosity.

GREEN

- nerve relaxant role;
- green is the universal healing color;
- relaxes the muscles;
- it can be useful for heart diseases, nervous disorders;
- general tonic role;
- regenerative role.

BLUE

- stimulates muscles and skin cells;
- useful for diseases and communication disorders or in the neck region;

- it can be useful for neuroses, scalp conditions, epilepsy, etc.;
- favors circulation;
- regulates thoughts and emotions;
- supports creativity.

How effective is chromotherapy?

A series of specialist studies have tested the effectiveness of this therapy, performing research based on exposure to colored light sources. These showed that exposure to red light led to an increase in blood pressure and produced the intensification of the body's functions, and blue led to a decrease in tension and establishing a state of tranquility in the body.

Note!

To use the chromotherapy program, please download the duCo Strip application from the Play Store or scan the QR code located below the base of the pyramid. After installing the application, activate the phone's bluetooth yourself and disconnect it if it is associated with another bluetooth device.

After these steps on the left side of the application there are three lines positioned on horizontally one below the other, click on the three lines, then click on "My Device" and the device is connected.

On the right side of the application, you can turn on and off the LEDs. For the color generation mode, press the "Style" button on the side from the bottom of the application. Chromotherapy can be used both for balancing chakras as well as for facilitating the energy of a corresponding planet the type of color mentioned above.

When we want to balance a certain chakra or chakras we select the light corresponding to the respective chakras for 30 minutes.

When we want to benefit to the maximum from the energetic flow of the pyramid we have to do it actively consciously by requesting out loud or in thought as we feel: - my Anahata chakra connects to the emission of light greens through which they receive Divine healing.

Multumesc, Multumesc, Multumesc. (am luat ca exemplu Anahata, insa puteti lua pentru orice chakra sau pentru toate chakrele).

The colors and potency of Astrology

Previously I mentioned the 7 colors and the corresponding planets respective colors.

When we want to manifest with the help of the energy of a certain planet, we select the corresponding color then request mentally or/and by imagination what we want to achieve or obtain.

Radionic Therapy

Radionica goes one step further, offering a systematic approach for assessment, approach and restoration of energy imbalances through bioelectromagnetic frequencies and sacred geometry.

Radionics works with the energy of bioelectromagnetic fields. Every living organism emits an energy field or a vibrational frequency. These energy patterns can be manipulated and harmonized to a promote healing, balance and well-being.

The radionic device amplifies and transmits subtle energies, allowing practitioners to interact with a person's energy model, place or object. Radionics identifies and corrects these imbalances energy fields, addressing the physical, emotional and spiritual aspects. It addresses various health problems with the aim of restoring balance the body's energy system.

In the field of agriculture, radionics has found a niche. Some farmers and gardeners uses traditional techniques to improve the growth of crops, to reject pests and to improve the general health of the soil.

By harmonizing the energy environment, radionics can have a positive influence plant development. In addition, the Pyramid also has a space on which we named it "King's Chamber" which uses the Radionic principle. In this enclosure, a sample of our DNA can be added, respectively a strand of hair or a piece of nail in order to support us energetically from distance, when we are not in its proximity.

Note:

On the back side of the pyramid there is an enclosure that I have named "King's Chamber" in this room you can add a DNA sample for balancing and protection from a distance.

The procedure is carried out as follows:

Take a piece of white paper on which you can write a message without negations, mandatory with a pencil because the pencil has a lead made of graphite and the graphite it has its own specific vibration.

If we use statements like:

- I don't want to be sick anymore!

The laws of the Universe do not decode the negation "NO" which is why the Universe identify the message as follows:

- I want to be sick!

Pay attention to what you ask for and how you ask for it!

Some positive suggestions are:

Divine Love; Divine Protection; Financial abundance; Divine Healing;

Connecting with my higher self; Connecting with the Source of Creation.

After you have written the desired message, roll the cigar-shaped piece of paper like this so that at the end there is enough space to enter the "King's Chamber". If the paper sticks out too much, cut the excess paper like this so that you can grab it for replacement or to add different DNAs.

Different DNAs can be added to the piece of paper at the same time.

The Radionic therapy period is 21 days with a 7-day break.

To clean a space from a distance, add a photo with the respective space on the hexagonal support located at the top of the pyramid.

Unlimited exposure time.

Enhances Thought Form

With the help of the PLASMATHOR Pyramid we can potentiate any form of positive thought.

It is good to know that the pyramid does not favor or amplify energies negative. Any interaction with these low vibration energies are absorbed and downloaded into the core of Mother Earth for alchemization and transformation.

The power of thoughts in creating a positive environment:

The power of thoughts is not limited to influencing our personal lives.

It can also expand our impact on the environment.

Our thoughts have an energy and a frequency that interacts with the energy around us. By cultivating positive thoughts and compassion compared to others, we can create an environment in which goodness can develop mutual love. Our thoughts are like waves that spread around us and subtly influences the attitude and behavior of those around us.

When we focus on love, understanding and respect, we can inspire and motivate those around to do the same.

Our interior is the exterior mirror of our thoughts. If we feed ourselves constantly with thoughts of success, confidence and abundance, we will attract in life our opportunities. But also circumstances that support us in reaching objectives. However, if we let ourselves be dominated by thoughts of fear or doubt, we will attract situations in our lives that confirm these limiting beliefs.

Awareness of the power of thoughts:

It is important to be aware of the power of our thoughts and to use them intentionally to create the life we want. When we realize that we are the creators of our own destiny, we can assume responsibility for our thoughts and actions. We can choose to think in a way that supports us and directs us towards success and happiness.

There are different techniques and practices that can help us train our minds to focus on positive thoughts. Meditation, affirmations and visualization are powerful tools in this sense. By practicing them regular, we can calm the mental noise, we can identify and transform negative thinking patterns and we can build a mentality based on confidence and abundance.

Note:

When we want to potentiate a certain form of thought, it is necessary let's connect with the pyramid by intention with the following statement (in thought or out loud):

I connect with the pyramid and with the Divine Source!

This statement must be repeated three times before the work procedure. After you have requested the connection with the pyramid and with the Divine Source, establish clearly the thought form that you want to materialize through visualization and affirmation.

Then the last step is to request:

I request that my thought form (here we visualize what we want to receive or to we get) to be now amplified in the most advanced way possible for my highest good (or for the good of the person I was working for).

PlasmaThor A New Earth 5D Pyramid Supports and Enhances Spiritual Practice

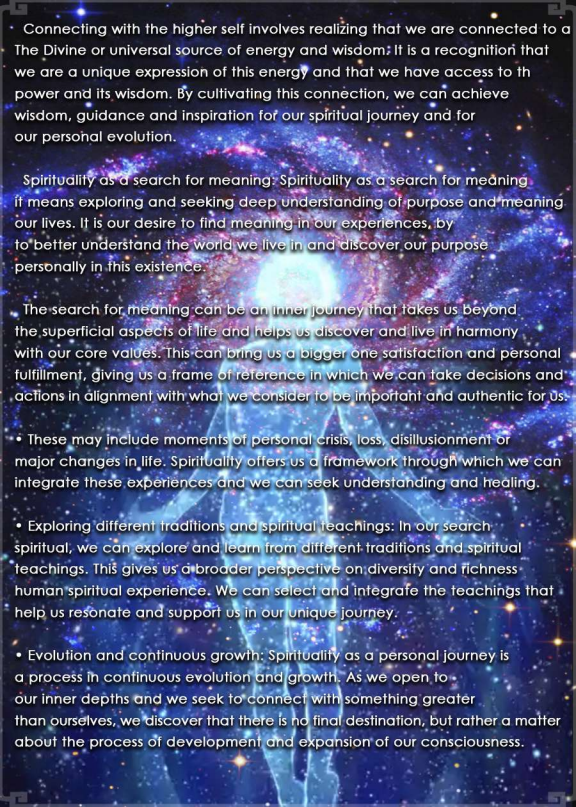

Due to its capacity as a bioenergetic facilitator, the Plasmathor Pyramid se can successfully use by maximizing the acceleration of spiritual ascent as well as amplifying the energy flow of the body.

Being spiritual means having an awareness and a deep connection with the non-material aspects of existence and seek understanding and evolution interior. It is a personal journey of self-discovery, understanding the purpose of life and exploration of the deeper dimensions of existence.

Developing the spiritual side can bring greater wisdom, peace interior and satisfaction in life. In this article, we will explore what it means be spiritual and how you can develop this side in a practical and authentic way.

Understanding the concept of spirituality:

Spirituality as a connection with the Higher Self: Spirituality as a connection with the higher self refers to the search for a deep and authentic connection with our divine or transcendent part. It is the recognition that we are more more than our physical bodies and minds, that there is another dimension the depth of our being that transcends material experiences and limitations human. This upper dimension can be called differently depending on spiritual traditions and beliefs, such as the Higher Self, the Soul, the Higher Self or Cosmic Consciousness.

A glowing blue human silhouette is centered in the image, set against a vibrant, starry galaxy background with swirling colors of blue, purple, and pink. The text is overlaid on this background.

Connecting with the higher self involves realizing that we are connected to a The Divine or universal source of energy and wisdom: It is a recognition that we are a unique expression of this energy and that we have access to its power and its wisdom. By cultivating this connection, we can achieve wisdom, guidance and inspiration for our spiritual journey and for our personal evolution.

Spirituality as a search for meaning: Spirituality as a search for meaning means exploring and seeking deep understanding of purpose and meaning in our lives. It is our desire to find meaning in our experiences, by to better understand the world we live in and discover our purpose personally in this existence.

The search for meaning can be an inner journey that takes us beyond the superficial aspects of life and helps us discover and live in harmony with our core values. This can bring us a deeper satisfaction and personal fulfillment, giving us a frame of reference in which we can take decisions and actions in alignment with what we consider to be important and authentic for us.

- These may include moments of personal crisis, loss, disillusionment or major changes in life. Spirituality offers us a framework through which we can integrate these experiences and we can seek understanding and healing.
- Exploring different traditions and spiritual teachings: In our search for spirituality, we can explore and learn from different traditions and spiritual teachings. This gives us a broader perspective on diversity and richness in human spiritual experience. We can select and integrate the teachings that help us resonate and support us in our unique journey.
- Evolution and continuous growth: Spirituality as a personal journey is a process of continuous evolution and growth. As we open to our inner depths and we seek to connect with something greater than ourselves, we discover that there is no final destination, but rather a matter about the process of development and expansion of our consciousness.

Practices for the development of the spiritual side:

- Meditation: Meditation is an essential practice for side development spiritual. This can help quiet the mind, connect with the self superior and cultivating a state of presence and inner consciousness.
